Hello! This is Yamchi, in charge of drawing,
and Mirchi, in charge of writing.
We created this special episode because my fatigue was reaching its limit.
dark circles with a diameter of 5cm
Tsk
Tsk
We ask you for your understanding and start this special episode.

Special episode part1. Questions

Q If there is no day and night, why did Lark say that the sun has set in chapter 17?

There is no difference between day and night, but the color of the sky changes. The sky is the color of the afterglow at daytime and purple at nighttime. It might be smart to pay attention to the changes of the sky's color throughout this webtoon.

Q. is it possible to install electronics by using the magic circle?

Magic is more advanced than science in the world of the Vampires because magic received more attention. Therefore magic is used to solve most problems in daily life. Magic will be detailed later in the main story...

Q. Is the pink haired girl in chapter 17 wearing underwear? Or isn't she?

Everything is up to your imagination

Q. Tell us about the birth and growth of vampires

Most of their lives are similar to a human's life. (clothing, food, housing, ect.) They all have a mother and a father and are born after 10 months of pregnancy. One difference is that they do not go into labor when giving birth and there is no period of recovery from a pregnancy. The growth is similar to human growth. Before the world of Crepuscule was created, a large difference in growth existed between humans and vampires However, after Crepuscule was created, the vampires adopted human characteristics and now have a similar growth and death. They have a slightly longer lifespan and a longer youth than humans. Some vampires with succubus affination maintain their youth for their whole lifespan.

Q. A human and vampire hybrid is not possible?

It is impossible because their DNA is different
Just like how a dog and a human cannot naturally produce an offspring.

Q. How many chapters long do you expect Crepuscule to be?

I am expecting it to be over 200 chapters.
I am not saying chapter 200 is the end.
It feels like I haven't covered even 50%...OTL
The story is roughly drafted until the end.

Q. Do the vampire races have a hierarchy?

Technically speaking, there is a hierarchy.
Pure-blood vampires > other races > werewolves > zombies 'was' the perceived hierarchy. However, with so many mixed bloods, that perception has become meaningless. Instead, the pure-bloods of each race are held higher. Since the vampires are the representative race, pure-blood vampires are held highest.

Q. How does the first generation know that Lark is human?

The First generation has met humans before, so that's how they know. They recognize the scent and the feeling of a human being. Of course, it does not mean that the entire First Generation recognizes humans at first glance. More than a hundred years have passed since they segregated themselves, so many don't even remember the existence of humans.

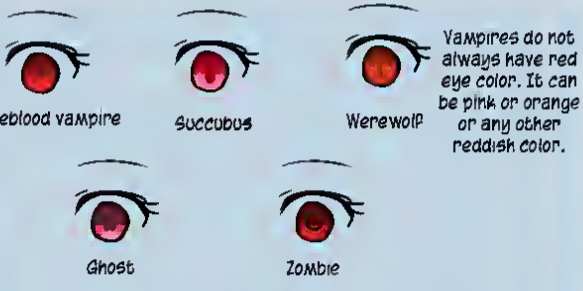
Q. Aren't there any summer uniforms?

The Navarus region doesn't have a summer, so no summer uniforms are needed.

Q. Do the four seasons exist in Crepuscule? Does it snow and rain?

The four seasons are separated into different regions. It rains once in a while. Nergal, where Lark grew up, is autumn. Navarus, where Arzew is located, has a climate roughly like spring or autumn. In addition, Ayahn (winter), Leberka (spring) and Klady (summer) are the respective seasons of the other regions.

Q. I want to know the eye shape for each race



Pureblood vampire
Succubus
Werewolf
Vampires do not always have red eye color. It can be pink or orange or any other reddish color.
Ghost
Zombie

Eye shapes that don't fit any of these categories can be classified as Mixed-blood. This is why vampires from Crepuscule think Lark is Mixed-blood. Since many Mixed-bloods live in Crespuscule, the eye shape is not relevant except for pure-blood vampires. Just take these as a reference.

Q. When will Lark and Setz meet?

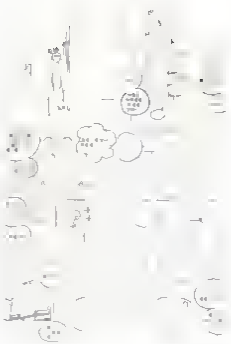
I'm putting this question in here because so many people are asking this... They will meet some time in the future, so please wait patiently. =(

Q. What tools do you use for drawing? I'm also curious about the work process

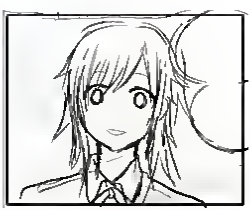
I draw the lines with SAI tools and everything else, such as coloring and typesetting is done with Photoshop.

First I receive the script from Mirchi.

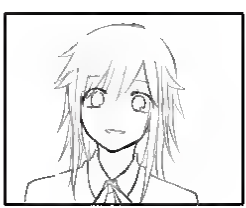
Part of chapter 19 script



Then I arrange the script in to a webtoon format.



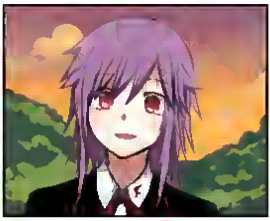
I sketch over the top of the script...



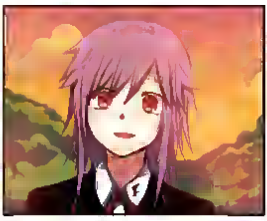
I use SAI to draw.

That's the part that takes the longest. I often draw right on top of the script because I don't have enough time ... =(

I use Photoshop for the coloring.

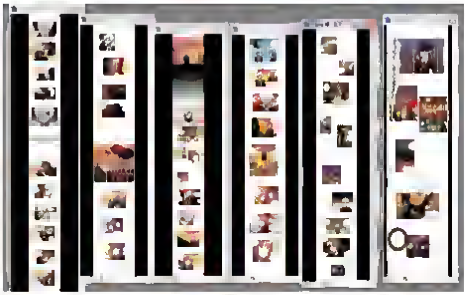


Drawing the background...



Using an overlay + screen effect...

Drawing speech bubbles and doing the typesetting... Because I often misspell words and get the spacing wrong, Mirchi writes all lines for me!



One chapter is finished after drawing for one week

Q. How does the education system in Arzew work?

Freshman – beginner and intermediate swordsmanship, theory + history (there is no sophomore year because it is a 3 year high school system)
Junior – magic + special abilities, theory + history, expert swordsmanship
Senior – preparing to get a job according to selected courses

Even in the world of vampires, getting a job is important... it's a sad reality. For future reference, there are several teachers per subject. The fact that Ohvier teaches theory in Lark's class does not mean he teaches all the other classes.

Q. Tell us about the First Generation.

First Generation refers to vampires that existed before Crepuscule was created hundreds of years ago. Generations after the creation of the world are not numbered. They are the ones who contributed to the creation of the world and are the ancestors of the current vampires. There are some rare cases of mixed-bloods, but most of them are pure-bloods of each race.

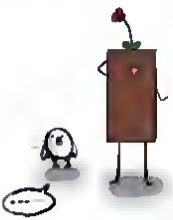
They do not grow naturally old or die. This power has not been affected by the creation of the world and it still remains in place. Currently most of them are in the council supporting the world. It is difficult for normal vampires to even meet one. There are many vampires that don't even know about their existence.

Q. What are the wings on students' collars?

Freshman junior senior

The wing color is used to tell apart the different grades.

Q. What is the relationship between Mirchi and Yamchi?



I am embarrassed to tell you but we are actually married. We went to King George Island on our honeymoon..

We also saw penguins.

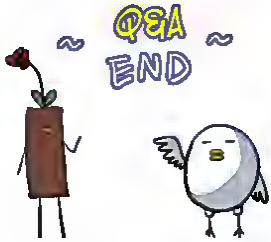
Just joking...
we're actually just friends.

Q What is the necklace Lark is wearing?

It is the necklace Arche gave him in chapter 9. Although it is not visible, he is always wearing it!

Q It feels like characters' names and backgrounds do not fit tha time period and place

That's because they developed a different culture after being separated from humans. Also, because this is a work of fiction, it can differ from actual facts, so please be aware of that.



The Q&A section is over. Please understand that we could not answer all questions and questions regarding spoilers.

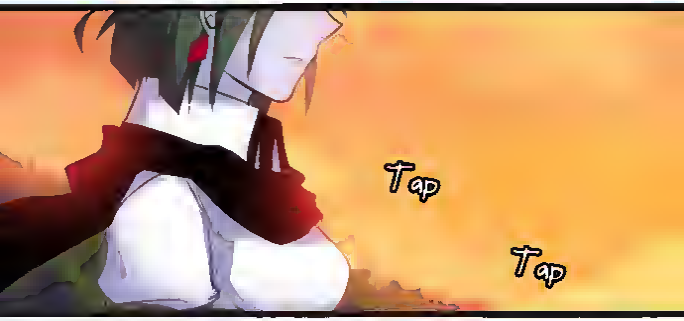
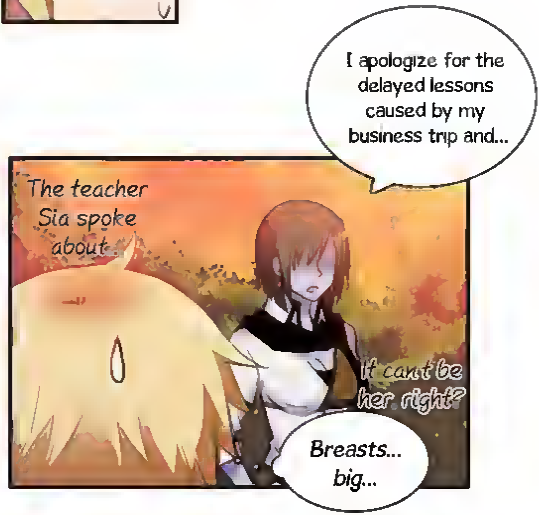
Everyone.



Nice to meet all of you
I'm Laura James.
I'm in charge of freshmen swordsmanship, and today, class 2 and 7 will be having a joint lesson.

Peek



I apologize for the delayed lessons caused by my business trip and...
The teacher Sia spoke about
It can't be her right?
Breasts... big...

Lessons will consist of outdoor practical lessons and indoor theory lessons.
Although today is the first lesson, I chose outdoors...
Sia took the entrance exam with me
To demonstrate the basics of swordsmanship
So he should be new to this school

Though I don't think there's a high school student who doesn't know the basics of swordsmanship...
I don't know!
Anyways, I need a helper for today's lesson.
Any volunteers?
I'll give you merit points.
Points...
This school uses a points system.

Nobody?
Oh...

There...

What...
Sia Kul?
...it was you.
Not you, go back.

I can't demonstrate with you.

ZOMBIES ARE ONE OF THE WORLD'S RACES.

They had inherited most traits of immortality out of all races but what we can say that characterizes a Zombie is their durability, along with their skin color and physical abilities

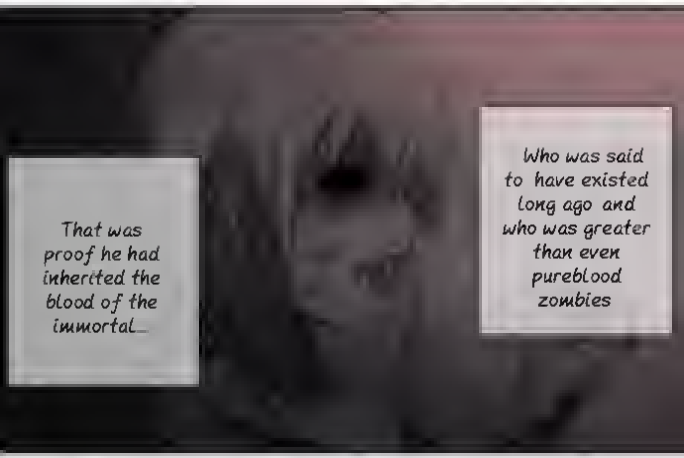
The zombie vampires of today have had their race's traits diluted due to interbreeding. This makes it hard to compare them to pureblood zombies ability-wise

However...

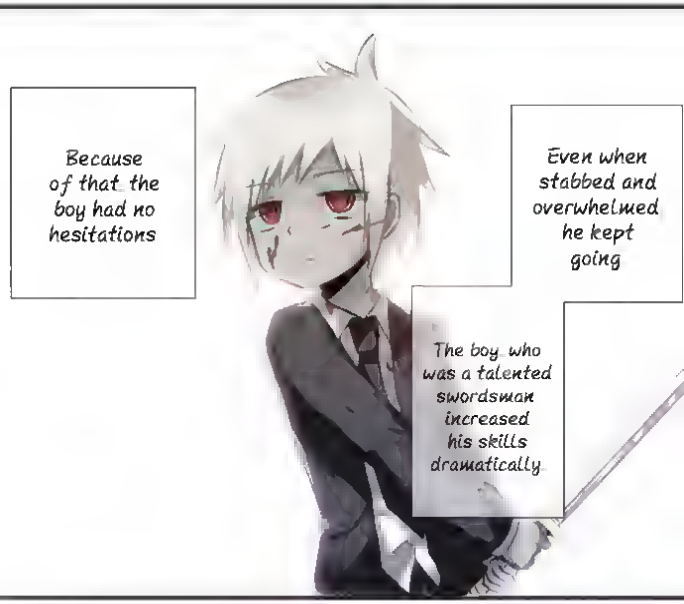
One day just like every other day a vampire with zombie ancestry was born

But the world declared him a mutant

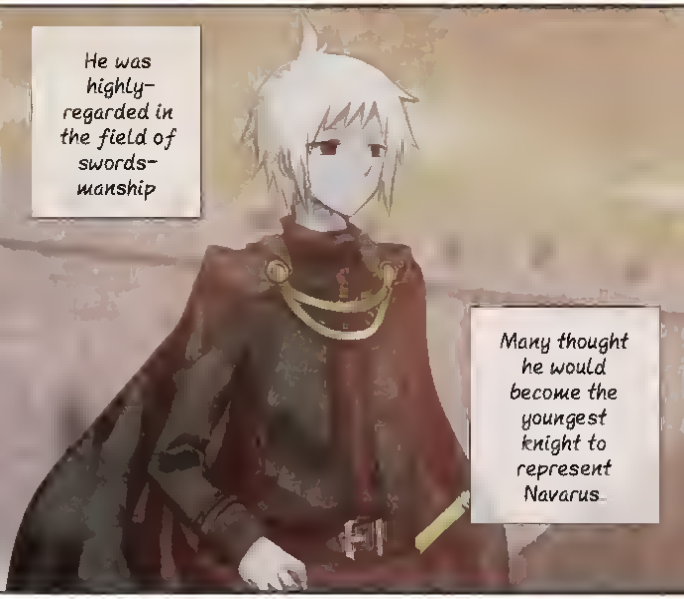
Pain is the body's warning signal
That boy naturally lacked much of this
Moreover because his entire sensory system were diminished. life was no fun for him
Eating food yields no taste
Stabbing his body with a pencil only tingles
Therefore the boy found pleasure only in sleeping



That was proof he had inherited the blood of the immortal...
Who was said to have existed long ago and who was greater than even pureblood zombies



Because of that the boy had no hesitations
Even when stabbed and overwhelmed he kept going
The boy who was a talented swordsman increased his skills dramatically

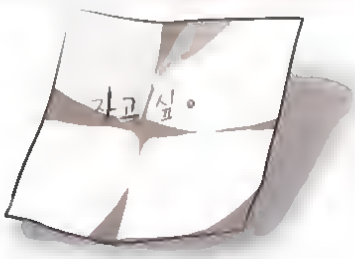


He was highly-regarded in the field of swords-manship
Many thought he would become the youngest knight to represent Navarus

However...

That was until that boy Sia Kul graduated from elementary

He suddenly disappeared after graduating Arzew elementary



Leaving only one message...

ON THE PAPER. "I WANT TO SLEEP"

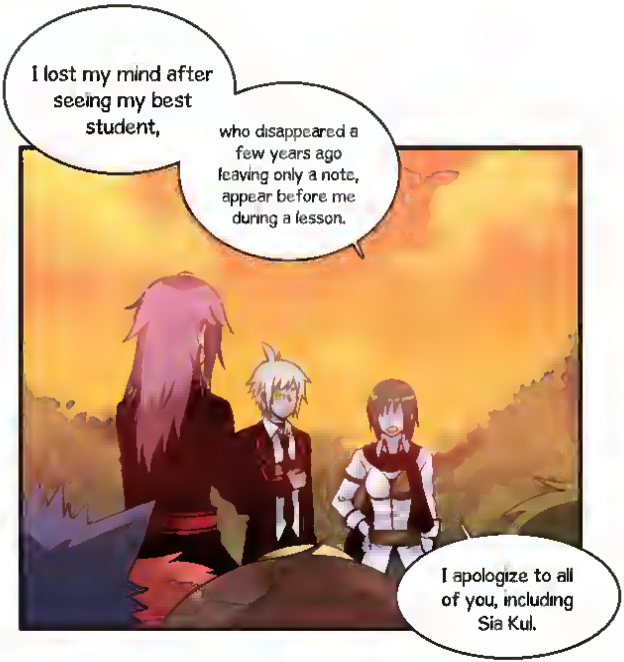
Yes, you are right.



I lost my mind after seeing my best student, who disappeared a few years ago leaving only a note, appear before me during a lesson.
I apologize to all of you, including Sia Kul.

But you, his fellow students, should remember Sia Kul.
You can rest easy about him.
His blessed zombie blood will quickly heal a wound like this.
Oh, that Sia Kul?!
Wow... I remember. It was him
Now that you mention it, his skin is still...

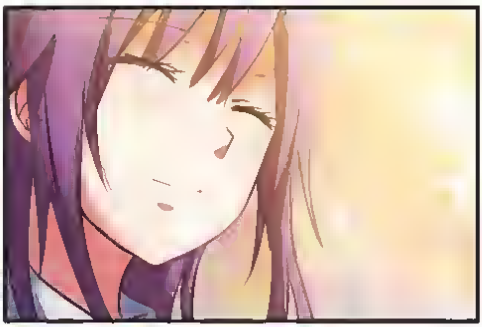
Hehu
You always hated to talk.

He was like that?
...Always...?
Yes. You might not know
Sia is famous. That's why I know

An expressionless face that is impossible to decipher
His serene personality
And above all, his incredible swordsmanship despite his young age!
It was enough to be admired by kids

He was so amazing...?
And I was one of those admirers.



It's my first time seeing her so angry.

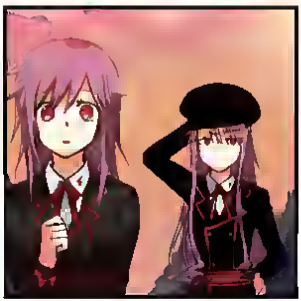
Ersha...

You really intend to go?



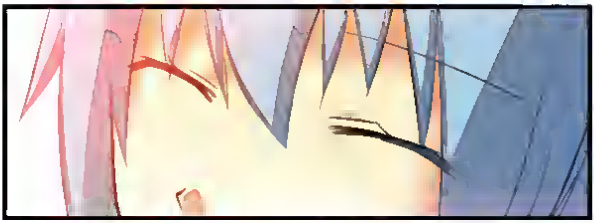
...Yes.
Really? It's almost time for the 'declaration ceremony'.
It does not matter.
And I am not interested.

Why are you making a fuss, big sis? Did you forget who she is?
Ren.

Ersha is basically the heir of the Sermenys clan.
Although the Sermenys does not have much political power as a pureblood clan, they have immense power in finance.
It's inevitable that Ersha gets called frequently

...That is not exactly it...
Smirk
So you know so much eh? And I though you were just an idiot that only knew about hats...
WHAT?! WHY YOU!!
C..calm down, Ren.
I'll be going.
Yes have a nice trip, Ersha.

It would be nice if you can get that news.



...Thank you.
I hope so too.

Chapter 24

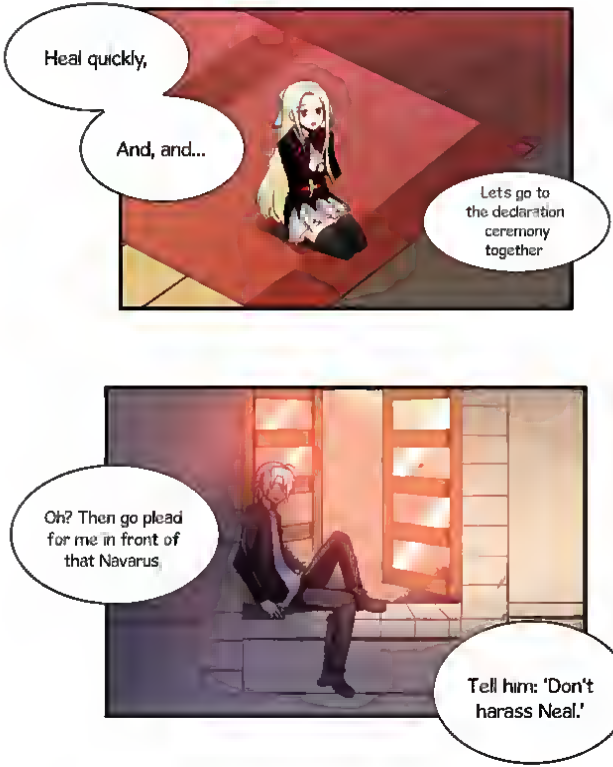
Um...how do you feel?
Although I do not understand why mister Navarus did that again...
Karne.

Would you shut up?
My head is ringing.

...O...Okay...
But...

We're friends...

What? Friends?
Who? You and me?
Or the son of that Navarus bastard?
Either way, it makes me want to vomit.
Um, Neal..



Heal quickly,
And, and...
Lets go to the declaration ceremony together
Oh? Then go plead for me in front of that Navarus
Tell him: 'Don't harass Neal.'

I already tried that...
It didn't work
And say 'Be nice to Neal!' with tears in your eyes.
That Navarus takes good care of you. How effective would that be?
.....
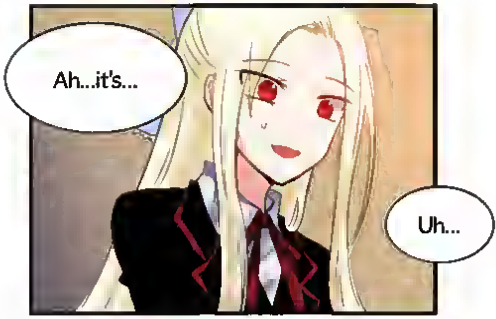
What? Do you have something to say?
H...HUH?!
Surprised
Normally, she goes away depressed by now..



Ah...it's...
Uh...

So...I just ...to you...

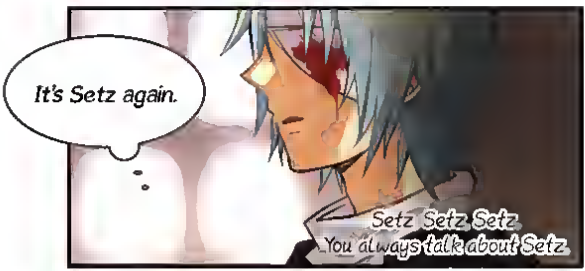
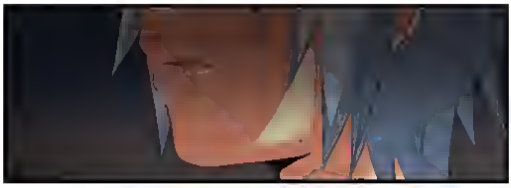
And Setz's there...
I should do it...
But...

Maybe it's because the declaration ceremony is getting closer...
Setz is being very irritated...
What?

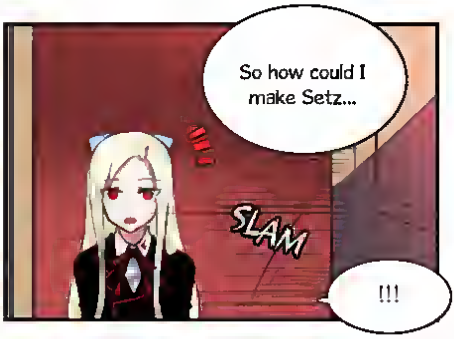


Being your friend is not pleasing at all.

A girl in love is just ugly



I hate it.



...Neal?
You never come outside when you're hurt...
Why should I stay shut in when our president has a concern?

Student council is about to begin so you shouldn't be depressed.
...Yes...

Neal...
you're so kind...
hug

Thank you very much!!
Neal, you are a very precious...

I will help you,
so don't worry.

It makes me want to vomit...

To Angela.

Angela, it's Lark. I am doing well.

At first... No- I still resent you a bit.

Although lessons are no fun...
snore~

I've made some friends and I'm doing well.

I am also looking for the thing you've asked for

Say hello to Avi and Arche for me

I am looking forward to school life

...Brat, don't lie.
If you asked the director, he would have given it.
But it seems like he's doing well.
Teacher—

Why aren't you coming out?

Um...

Come inside,
I have something to say.

But still.
I hope that...

everything works out without much trouble.

Be healthy, Angela.

SLAM

Hi—!!
Hahaha...
Hello.
step
step

...Come in quietly, Bathory Spitzen.
We don't need etiquettes between us.
...Your impudent attitude hasn't changed.
tsk
Oh my?

Oh~ If it isn't Neal? How is your eye that Navarus poked?
And what's up with that crude design on your eyepatch?

...YOU BITCH... slide
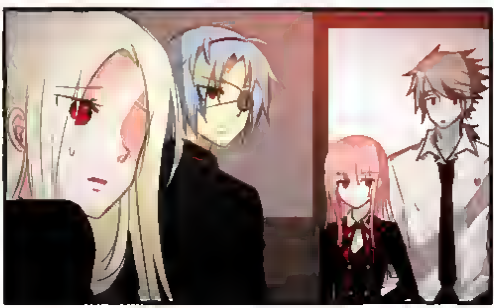
SHUT UP!



It's almost time for the declaration ceremony and you are not ready to be a role model to others
Karne is in front of you, shouldn't you show her some respect first?
So...sorry.
Okay, sorry.

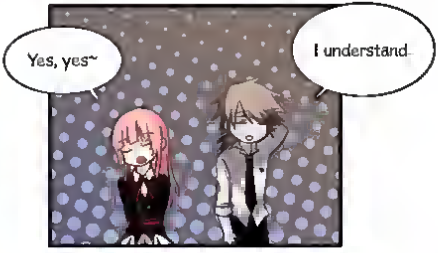
...Bear in mind,

Nirvana Freire,

Bathory Spitzen,

and Sai Kul.

The declaration ceremony is an important event for this world.
You guys just stay put,
I will not allow any more disturbances!
If you are a member of the student council, protect the dignity of the student council!



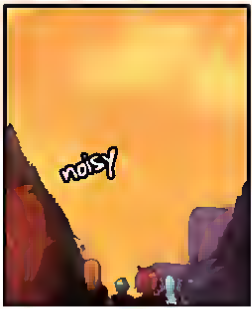
Yes, yes~
I understand.

CREPUSCULE

Chapter 25

Hello, Lark!
Oh?
Sia's with you?
...
Hello, Seere!

Yes, he is.
By the way, why are all the students gathering in the assembly hall today?
Huh? The blue hair kid is not here?
Did she go somewhere?

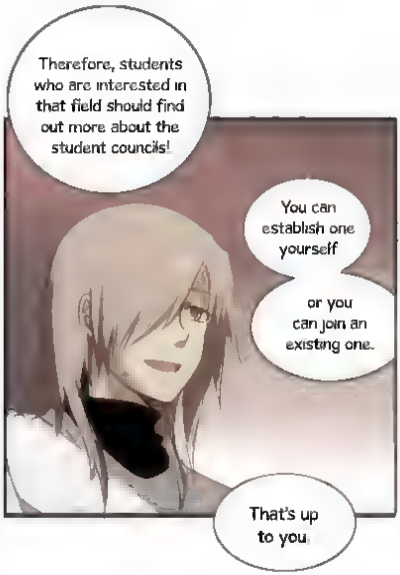


noisy

You don'tknow, Lark?
Today is the declaration ceremony.

Declaration ceremony?
Yes, for the student council.

Oh~ the student council..



Therefore, students who are interested in that field should find out more about the student councils!
You can establish one yourself or you can join an existing one.
That's up to you.

Due to the fact that anyone can just create one, there might be more than one student council in each generation.

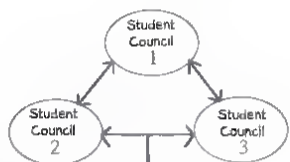
PRESIDENT — VICE-PRESIDENT

OFFICERS

MEMBERS

Because of this, there can be two or three student councils or even none!



You will be setting a good example by joining the council, although it's not as simple as it sounds. You will have to face competitions.

FUTURE ASSEMBLY

You might not know this since you lived in the countryside, but the student councils' 'declaration ceremony' is actually very important to this world.
It signals the beginning of the next generation's 'nobles'.

Hm...
It seems like nobles are more important to the people than I thought.

Well, I'm not interested.
headache~
Hmm~
I'm not surprised...

POP
I'm just curious about what ability the president has.

...Ability?

Yes.
If the adult vampires don't awaken the unique ability each one has, they cannot use that ability.

Although it's not even allowed for minors to use their abilities, the student council is different.
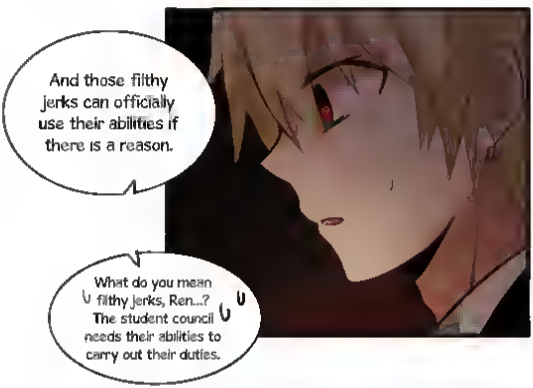
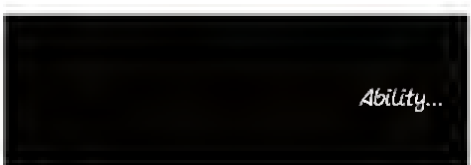
The strength of the president's ability can decide the power the student council will hold
So it is very important to show off the president's ability during the declaration ceremony



And those filthy jerks can officially use their abilities if there is a reason.
What do you mean filthy jerks, Ren...? The student council needs their abilities to carry out their duties.

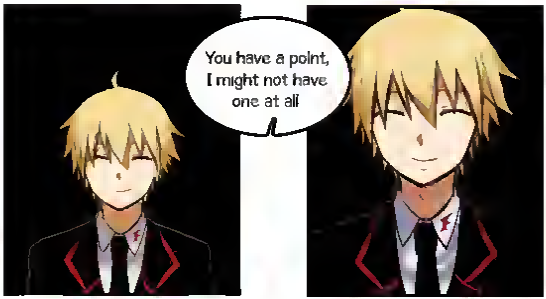


Ability...

Y. you guys...
Do you... know what your abilities are?
I don't have something like that...

No~
Because it's forbidden for minors to use their abilities, they are only activated at a rite of passage.
mumble
There are many Zombies that don't have abilities ..
However, Arzew holds lessons for junior classes and students can have their abilities activated then.

I have been so curious to know what our abilities are for a long time! It's finally going to be activated this year, Ren!
Don't be too excited, big sis.. It's not going to be anything spectacular.



You have a point, I might not have one at all

I am lucky,

Some don't have abilities.

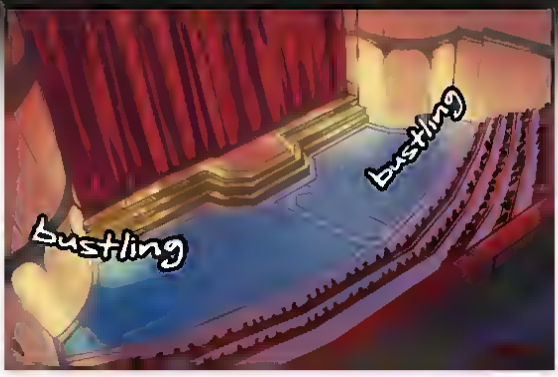
Ah, so these are the unique abilities Angela mentioned before that the people of this world have

It's obvious that I don't have one

Oh, we're here!

I should have learned medical botany...

It's the assembly hall



bustling
bustling

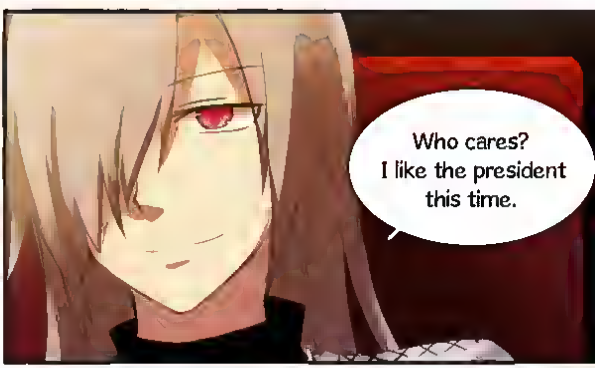
Phew~!!
The assembly hall is overcrowded!

...So

What are you doing here, El?
The security captain isn't on guard?
bzz
bzz
The situation is being reported to me.

What if something happens here?
When the leading nobles of this world arrive?
pull—
Mind your own business.

Then how about that old man sitting behind me?



It reminds me of an old story.

Dunno. He'll come eventually.
Ren, you're so. .
By the way, Sia, I thought you weren't interested in the declaration ceremony—
Isn't it bother-some for you?
Uh...

I'm in student council, so you have to come, okay?
Don't think of it as bothersome, and just come watch your cool brother! Although I have failed the yearly exam three times, now I will finally be a proper servant for the people. Huh?
You suddenly have a writing assignment? Anyways, it's really cool. I'm part of the student council. From now on, it is not Failure King Sai. Sia, you should also start respecting me.
If you go into swordsmanship, I will support you from my desk!
What? I can't do anything from a desk? That's all in the past, my brother! I can do it if I have the willpower to do it.
This is all for Bathory... I mean, this is all for the glory and development of the world. So, be sure to come! You have to come!
Don't think that it's bothersome, and just come! I'll be waiting! After, I'll make you write what your impressions were!

...is in the student council
Your brother!?

...
If it's Sia's brother...

Well, I guess it'd be hard being in the student council~

The student council members don't really hold any power until they graduate, and are approved by the assembly

They have to work hard, and receive acknowledgment by the citizens of the world

That is one of the rules of the `world

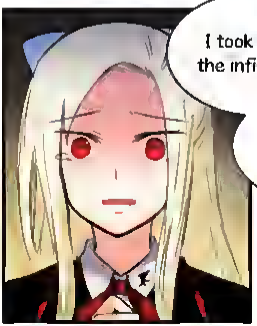
Given power from the time that they are students the consequences of their disposition requires them to make a commitment
They are to service the world exceptionally
Without the heart for the citizens of this world, student councils would be worthless

That shrouds people's eyes

Doing something that bothersome...

...Karne.

That guy from before...?



I took him to the infirmary.

Neal.. what about you? Are you okay?

Uh...
I'm fine.
More impor-tantly...

It's really... too much...!!
Karne...

Have you ever heard about crocodile tears...?

. Will you bring me bandages and something to clean my face?

Ah, okay...

sob..

squeak—

slam

Even though I was born into the nobility spit
How would I, who is favored by Navarus, really know what's too much?
Annoying.

Even if I strangled myself...

My extremely forgetful brain...

Anyway...

I lost my mind because my eye was exposed...

This doesn't look good

That damned Navarus!

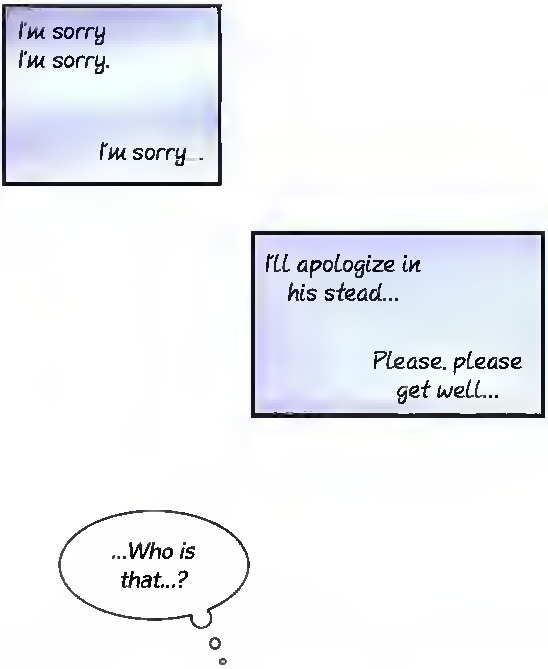
But the guy who saw my eye in this state... I can't let him get away.

He is at the infirmary, right? Should I go kill him now?

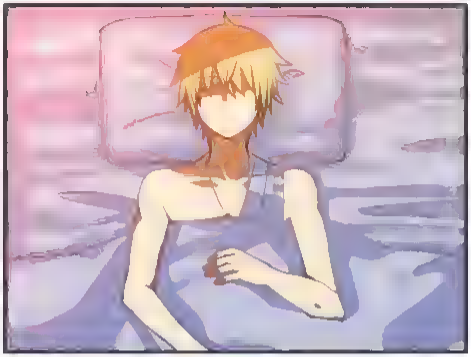
...No...
I might not be able to participate in the declaration ceremony
I can't do anything about this...
Huh?

This...

Maybe...?



I'm sorry
I'm sorry.
I'm sorry...
I'll apologize in his stead...
Please, please get well...
...Who is that...?



...what happened
I don't really know...

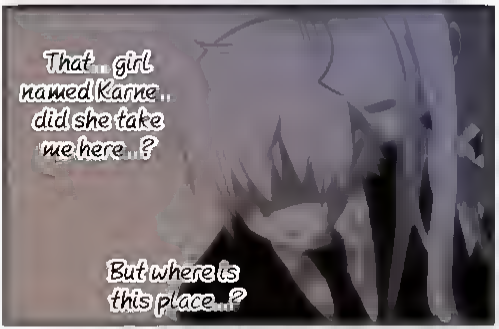
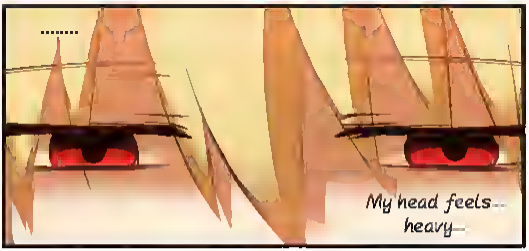
My stomach hurts
and my whole body
hurts as well...

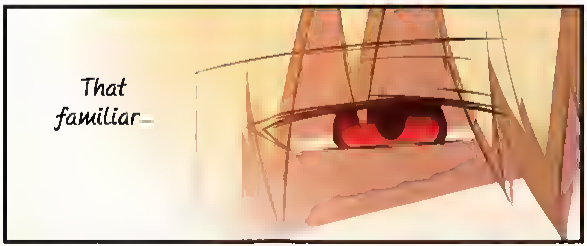




slide

...Sleep some more.
You'll feel better after you wake up.
Huh?

Angela?



That
familiar—

Even though I want to get up and check if she is real

My body... won't move...

Your... eyes are again...?

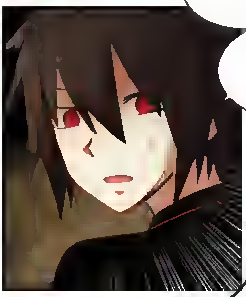
Setz.

Sir Navarus...
Planted his 'ability' in Neal's eye
So...

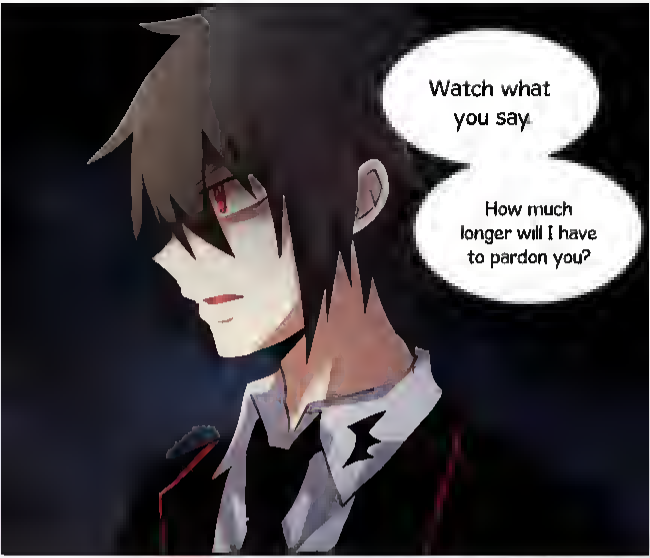


!!!!
What?!

QUIET!!!

Stop sticking your nose into other people's business and mind your own!!
JUST SHUT UP!!!

Snicker
I'M DEFINITELY GONNA KILL THAT BASTARD, NAVARUS, WITH MY OWN HANDS!!
...Neal.



Watch what you say.
How much longer will I have to pardon you?

CREPUSCULE

Chapter 29

Welcome.

Have you
fared well?

At your choice

...Mom...

Dad...

Why are my eyes...
Red...?

This is so hard
It's painful.

I didn't do anything

I'm human just like them...

Why do they harass me .

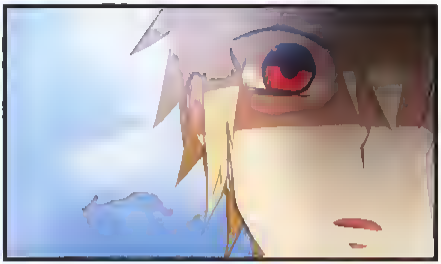
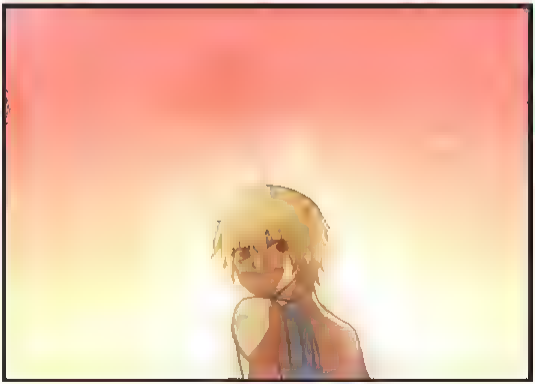
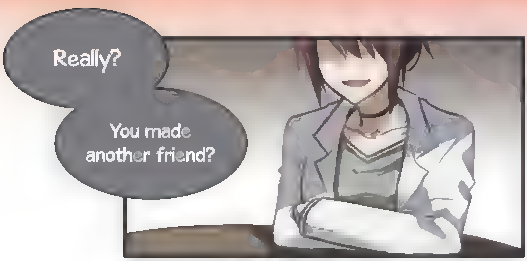
Just because
I am different?

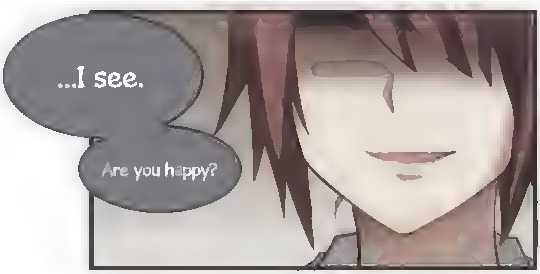






Really?
You made another friend?

Yes!!!
It's a friend that has animal ears and tail,
And his teeth are sharp. It's so amazing!!

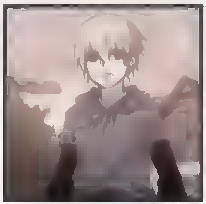


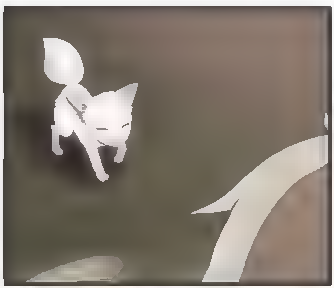
...I see.
Are you happy?

Yes.

No one hits me here.

No one makes fun of me either.
I... I...





Realized too early

that being normal brings happiness.

...What is this...?
Is this... a dream...?
Who are you...?

Do you like being normal?
But you are special.

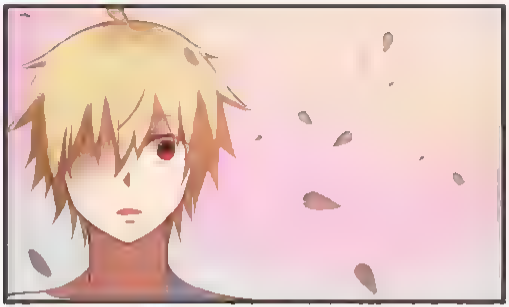
At least
in this place

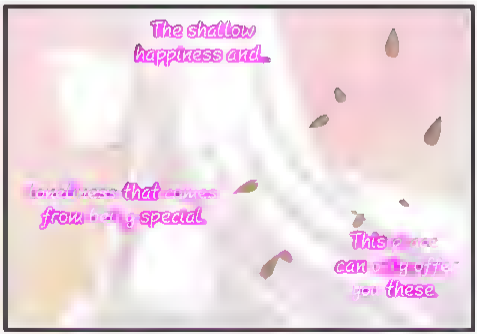
If you had a another choice...
Would you accept it?

If you want to go back,

you can.

You are not a person
of this world





The shallow happiness and...
from being special.
This power can only offer you these.

You have to always live on the edge

as a stranger.

No one can treat you truthfully.

Because you have a special secret that you must keep your whole life

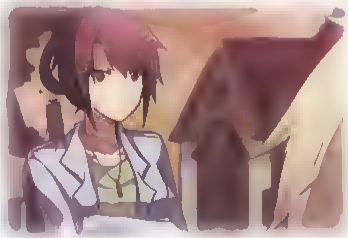
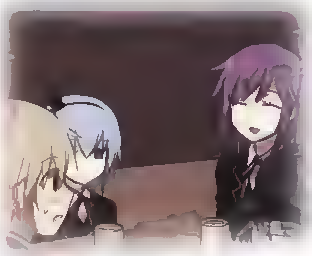
...You'll...
Send me back. . over 'there'...?

I can.
By coming to me.
You have gained a choice.
I do not want to give you a shallow happiness.
But keep in mind that you will only have one chance.
...Shallow...





Lark...
I wish you happiness...

I don't want to...
...No...

Every moment was fun but

At least
at least

At least Angela

knows me

If there is even just one person.

I'll...
